Hey! Does your company or organization need a free educational speaker? COPEC (Central Ohio Professional Education Council) is a local non-profit that provides educational speakers at no cost, with no marketing or no sales pitch.

Description

Headquartered in Dublin, Ohio, COPEC is a non-profit organization that offers a variety of education opportunities for individuals in the local community to achieve greater knowledge on issues involving many disciplines. This outreach is generally attained by partnering with local companies, churches, associations and organizations by providing free workshops and seminars to their employees, members and volunteers. All COPEC programs are presented by local volunteer experts and are provided with the goal of overall education without the influence of individual company marketing or sales presentations.

Mission Statement

COPEC's mission is to help improve the quality of life for Central Ohioans through adult workshops and educational seminars. Our goal is to provide a safe and ethical educational environment for organizations to make available to their members and employees.
